LEGENDARY GRAMMY® AWARD WINNER AND MUSIC ICON
BRIAN WILSON ANNOUNCES AL JARDINE WILL JOIN HIS CARPENTER CENTER PERFORMANCE ON OCTOBER 11TH

Former Beach Boy Bandmate and Co-Founder, Al Jardine Will Join the 20th Anniversary Celebration of the Center. Tickets On Sale Now.

LONG BEACH, Calif. – Legendary music icon and Grammy® Award winner, Brian Wilson (Beach Boys Co-founder) announced that his former Beach Boy bandmate and friend Al Jardine will join him on his Oct. 11, 2014 performance at the Richard and Karen Carpenter Performing Arts Center on the campus of Cal State Long Beach for a performance that commemorates the theatre's 20th anniversary.

Jardine joined Wilson this past July for two UK performances, and they will kick off their tour on September 27 in Hollywood, FL. The tour will also take the two legends to New York City, Toronto, Washington D.C., Boston, among several other cities.

Jardine recently joined Wilson in the studio as a guest on Wilson's upcoming album on Capitol Records. "Al has one of the most amazing voices I've ever had the privilege to work with and I can't wait to hear him on stage singing with me and my band," said Wilson.

Wilson is one of popular music's most deeply revered figures, the creative force behind some of the most cherished recordings in rock history. Indeed, it is no exaggeration to call Brian Wilson one of the most influential composers of the last century as he was barely out of his teens when he co-created some of the most beloved records ever. Wilson co-wrote, arranged, produced and performed with The Beach Boys,
