A FREE CONCERT FEATURING AN ECLECTIC BLEND OF MUSIC BY THE ANNIE MOSES BAND UNDER THE STARS AT CARPENTER CENTER

LONG BEACH, Calif. – Enjoy the fresh fusion of pop, jazz, bluegrass and classical music as the Annie Moses Band swings into Long Beach for a FREE outdoor concert on the Carpenter Family Terrace at the Richard and Karen Carpenter Performing Arts Center on the campus of Cal State Long Beach on Friday, March 14, 2014 at 7pm.

The Annie Moses Band is a family ensemble formed by the Wolaver siblings with their parents Bill and Robin spearheading the lyrics and arrangements. The family's long roots of music date back three generations to the siblings' great-grandmother, who is the actual Annie Moses for which the group is named. The family has taken its musical inheritance to combine the best of beloved genres in a style that unifies audiences, young and old, classical connoisseurs and roots enthusiasts, jazz aficionados and bluegrass buffs.

As a whole, the family has earned numerous awards and achievements that testify to the depth of each member's artistic ability. The group consists of highly trained experts with most of them having graduated from the prestigious Juilliard School, including Annie (lead vocals/violin), Alex (vocals/viola) and Benjamin (cello). The Annie Moses Band's innovative sound has delighted audiences on stages as diverse as Carnegie Hall and the Grand Ole Opry, and has also appeared on PBS.

Arts for Life is generously funded by Los Angeles County Supervisor Don Knabe, the Kenneth C. Wang Family Foundation, Arts Council for Long Beach, the Long Beach Rotary Charitable Foundation, Target stores, and generous individual donors.

Reservations are required, limited chair seating is available. Additional open seating is available for personal lawn chairs and blankets.
