CHINESE ACROBATS DAZZLE WITH ONE SHIMMERING SHOW

~ Trapeze, Tightrope, and Tumbling Troupe Return~

LONG BEACH, CA – On January 21 at 2 p.m. and 8 p. m., the pageantry of the Orient returns to the Carpenter Center, on the campus of Cal State Long Beach, as The Peking Acrobats thrill theatre-goers once again – back by popular demand. This fun-for-the-whole-family spectacular is quite appropriately part of our Wow! series, as both young and young-at-heart are forever “wowed” by this troupes’ daring feats of dexterity in every spellbinding, high-energy performance.

Amazing audiences with their strength, coordination, and sparkling style, the Peking Acrobats honor their roots, bringing the magic and majesty of an ancient Chinese carnival to present-day stages around the world. This elegant ensemble has been together for more than 30 years, incorporating traditional Chinese music, glittering colors, and deft skills to each of their jubilant events.

ABOUT THE CARPENTER CENTER Founded in 1994, the Carpenter Performing Arts Center located on the CSULB campus gracefully accommodates large and small productions, seating 1,062 patrons. The Center is named after pop music duo Richard and Karen Carpenter, who both attended California State University, Long Beach. Their music still epitomizes the best of our culture; modern and traditional, wholesome and sage. The Carpenter Center continues to honor that elegant legacy each season by showcasing emerging and established musicians, dancers, actors, comedians and visual artists, as well as other culturally relevant presentations.
